SONGISTRY COMPLETES ACQUISITION OF BOPPER MUSIC

Los Angeles, CA – (November 29, 2022) - Songistry Inc., an AI-based music technology company, is pleased to announce that it has closed its previously announced acquisition of the business and assets of the Apollo Music Store Inc. (aka “Bopper”). Based in Montreal, Canada, Bopper owns and operates an automated platform that allows content producers to license the rights to use music on their audio-visual productions.

“We are very pleased to complete this strategic acquisition and join forces with the Bopper team,” said Justin Gray, founder/CEO of Songistry. “The acquisition of Bopper fits seamlessly into our strategy to disrupt how music is discovered and licensed for film, television, advertising, gaming and user generated content such as Tik Tok, YouTube and Instagram.”

Bopper brings with it an established customer base and over 8,000 ready to license music tracks on its platform. In addition, Bopper has complementary IP assets, including proprietary technology that allows every song to be priced individually using AI technology. Songistry plans to leverage this technology applying it to its hyperAUDIO and MDIIO platforms, as well continuing to amplify the Bopper brand.
